Dear Mr. Rodgers:

I write on behalf of my constituent, [REDACTED], of [REDACTED], [REDACTED], Illinois, [REDACTED]. Her telephone number, date of birth, and Social Security number are [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and [REDACTED], respectively.

According to [REDACTED] in the late 1970s or early 1980s, her late attorney, [REDACTED] submitted paperwork seeking a pardon on her behalf. She was of the impression that the pardon was granted because no issues arose related to her 1977 conviction for mail fraud since that time. However, the [REDACTED] terminated her employment on February 24, 2010 citing her criminal background. On [REDACTED] behalf, I request clarification regarding whether pardon or executive clemency applications were filed on her behalf.

I respectfully request that you provide full and fair consideration to [REDACTED] request consistent with applicable law. In addition, please respond to my Director of Constituent Services, Ms. Annette de Caussin, at 17926 South Halsted Street, Homewood, Illinois, 60430.

Thank you in advance for your assistance and cooperation in this matter. I look forward to receiving your reply.

Sincerely,

Jesse L. Jackson, Jr.
Member of Congress

Illinois [Redacted]

Our File No.: 524117

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that I have been contacted by [Redacted] in connection with determining whether or not a Pardon or an Executive Clemency application was filed on her behalf. [Redacted] informs me that she was convicted on a [Redacted] Illinois in the Federal District Court of Illinois. She believes that previous counsel applied for a Pardon but she cannot confirm whether this was indeed done or what the outcome may have been as her attorney passed away and she has been unable to get in touch with anyone who may have continued his practice or kept his records. [Redacted] present address is shown above and for purposes of identification, her date of birth is [Redacted] and her social security number is [Redacted].

If necessary we can provide further identifying information at your request. [Redacted] has executed and dated this letter below in order to authorize you to release information to my office. However if you prefer, you may send any reply directly to her at the above address. We look forward to your prompt response and thank you in advance for your anticipated cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Dear Congressman Jessie Jackson Jr.

In [REDACTED] I was convicted of [REDACTED] I received [REDACTED] My conviction was restitution and two years probation. At that time I was working for the [REDACTED] My Attorney at that time is no longer living. However, he explained to me that he would file for a Presidential Pardon within the allotted time. I thought he had done so, because over the past Thirty-Three Years, I have worked for the [REDACTED] two times since this occurred, and in several other jobs. I went back to school and obtained a degree. I am now sixty-one years old. My concern for writing this letter [REDACTED]

Attn: Ms. Annette de Caussin

Dear Congressman Jackson:

This is in response to your letter of April 23, 2010, requesting the status of an application for executive clemency purportedly submitted by or on behalf of your constituent, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] application for Presidential pardon was received in this office on May 26, 2010 and is being processed; our records indicate that this is [REDACTED] initial application for pardon. The amount of time required to process such applications can be lengthy, and no assurance can be provided that final action on her application will be taken within a specific time period. However, she will be promptly notified when her application has been adjudicated.

Thank you for your interest in this matter. We have made your letter part of [REDACTED] clemency case file.

Sincerely,

Ronald L. Rodgers
